SOUTH COUNTY RI MODERN QUILTERS HOLD INAUGURAL MEETING

South County RI Modern Quilt Guild is forming a new local guild with the mission to support and encourage the growth and development of modern quilting through art, education, and community. Modern quilting is a different approach to traditional quiltmaking. It's a mindset of reimagining the standard, pushing the boundaries of creativity, and nurturing connections.

All quilters from enthusiast or beginner through advanced are welcome to join together to help form the direction of this new guild. Members will spread quilting inspiration, tips and techniques with one another and meeting attendees should bring quilts to participate in show and tell.

The first meeting of the South County RI Modern Quilt Guild will be at the Maury Loontjens Memorial Library at 25 Pier Market Place in Narragansett, RI 02882 on Wednesday, March 25, 2026 from 6PM to 7:45PM.
